

Please do not deregulate the DSL industry. I have found that the large Phone companies and providers (SBC, Bell South, Earthlink) do not offer reliable connections and have no interest in providing the services they have contracted.

I use small ISPs that rent their lines for both work and my home, and have found useful, reliable service.